

Jayme & Mailey

Dear Mamma,

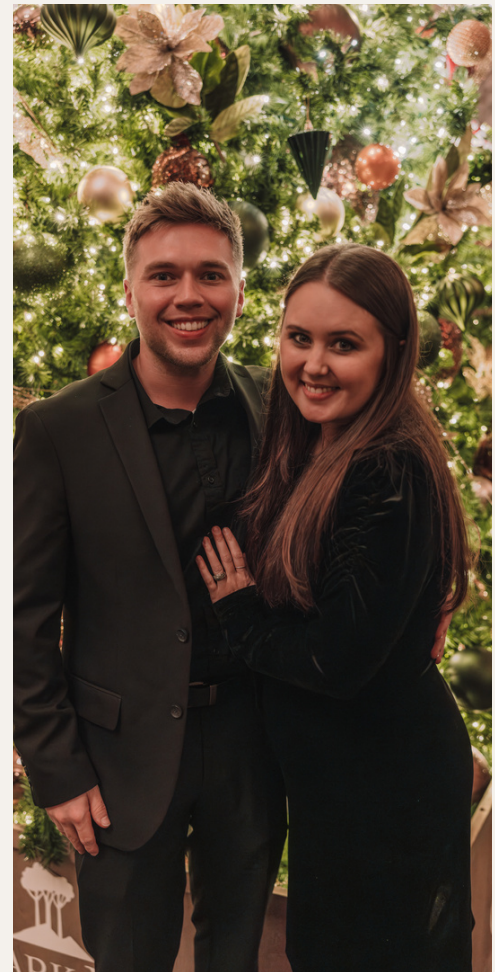

We want to thank you for taking the time to view our album and read this letter from us. Please know that even though we don't know you yet, we have prayed daily for you as you embark on this incredible journey. We can't imagine the emotions you feel as you make these decisions and consider the future of your baby's life. We can all take rest and have great peace in knowing that if God has ordered our steps this far, He will continue to lead us to where we need to be. We want you to know and be comforted that if you choose us, your beautiful baby will grow up in a loving home, surrounded by wonderful people whom we know and trust dearly. We promise to love this amazing baby with all the love our hearts can give and to raise them to know God in the purest, most authentic way. If you choose, we would love to be able to know you too. You have a support system right here praying for you and we want to make sure that your child knows that you gave them the most amazing miracle of life. Thank you again for considering our family. May God bless you and may His favor rest on your life.

-Jayme & Hailey

The Beginning

Our story began when we both received an invitation to attend and serve at a youth service happening only a few miles from where Jayme grew up. Both of us share a passion for music and we were both scheduled to sing that night at the service. When we arrived that night, neither one of us knew that our lives would soon change forever. We had our first encounter with each other as we did our best to muster up the courage after the service to say, "Hello" and "You did a great job". From that night on, we began talking nonstop, going to church services together, and imagining all of the wonderful things God had in store for our lives. We got engaged a few years later. It was a beautiful night looking at Christmas lights together while walking around the lake in a small town not too far from where we grew up. He led me to a gazebo where little did I know my family was waiting nearby, ready to celebrate with us. He got down on one knee and asked me to be his wife. Without hesitation, I said yes! In the following days, we began planning for our wedding.

Choosing Adoption

DO NOT BE ANXIOUS ABOUT ANYTHING, BUT IN EVERYTHING BY PRAYER AND SUPPLICATION WITH THANKSGIVING LET YOUR REQUESTS BE MADE KNOWN TO GOD. AND THE PEACE OF GOD, WHICH SURPASSES ALL UNDERSTANDING, WILL GUARD YOUR HEARTS AND YOUR MINDS IN CHRIST JESUS.
PHILIPPIANS 4:6-7

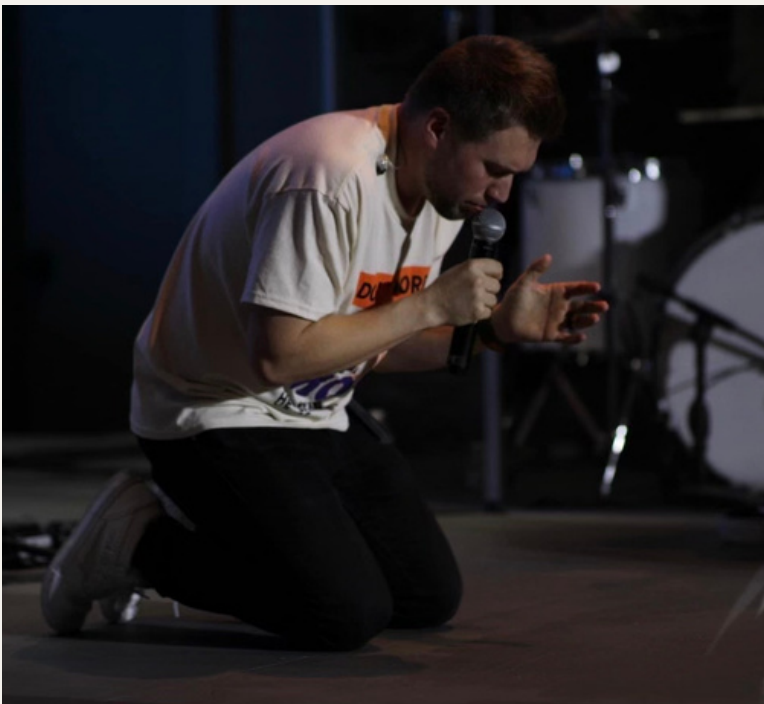

Adoption came to us as a blessing in disguise. Many people may consider adoption as a plan B for infertility, but what we often consider as a plan B can be God's plan A. This is very much the case in our story. Soon after we married, we knew without a doubt that we wanted to have children. Unfortunately, we found out early in our marriage that Hailey had Stage 3 Endometriosis. Through procedures, tests, a miscarriage, and many tears, we reached a point of finally releasing our desires for God's desires. By letting go of what we had in mind, we gained what God had in mind all along. God has given us such unexplainable peace about moving forward with adoption and we are humbled and honored to one day be parents to a little boy or girl.

Meet Jayme

THROUGH HAILEY'S EYES

When I was 18, I wrote down everything I wanted in a husband in my journal. I prayed over it daily. I remember writing that I wanted a husband who was kind, compassionate, fun, and hard-working. I also wrote on the top of the page that a bonus would be that he plays guitar and sings. I truly found out that God cares for our heart's desires down to the details. Jayme has all of the qualities I wanted in a husband and more. He is handsome and has the most amazing voice I have ever heard. He is a great communicator and is thrilled to share the love of Jesus with anyone he can. Jayme loves to play guitar, sing, and write music. His heart and calling are to lead others in worship. He puts others before himself always and makes sure that I am well taken care of, especially when it comes to cooking! He is going to be the most amazing dad to any little girl or boy. I know he will truly lead our household in the ways of Jesus and I can't wait to see it unfold.

Meet Hailey

THROUGH JAYME'S EYES

Hailey is truly my best friend and exceeds every desire that I could ever have in a wife. Her outward beauty is a reflection of her kind heart. Her personality is the best of everything good all compiled into one. She is kind, funny, patient and caring. Hailey is the type of person who easily adapts to situations and tends to the needs at hand. She is both elegant and strong. Her love is often seen in the way she cares for others. She puts the needs of others above her own when they are in a tough situation and gives them hope. She thrives in organization and bringing order to chaotic situations. She is very much a person who loves paper, calendars and pens! She's the one who makes things run smoothly in our home and also brings this same order to the nonprofit we both help run. With all of these incredible attributes, I can't begin to imagine how much of an amazing mother she will be.

SPENDING TIME TOGETHER

Our weekends are always filled with good times. Whether we're off together spending time at home or serving with our outreach team, it's always fun. We enjoy movie nights, video games, nice dinners, and spending time with our closest friends.

MEET Booger & Little Man

Jayne surprised me with Booger, AKA Boog, right before we got married because he knew that I wanted a teacup Chihuahua. Well to our surprise, Boog was not a teacup Chihuahua but a muscular little dog with a heart of gold. You often believe you get a puppy to be your emotional support animal but I am pretty sure I am his emotional support human. Little Man came along when we saw that this little guy was rescued from a main highway close to where we lived. He looked so much like our other fur baby at the time that we had to adopt him. He is the sweetest puppy around and chose Jayme as his favorite human. They both are spoiled rotten! I can't wait for them to meet their future brother or sister.

Our Families

We both love our families so much and we are all very close. Both of our families live in Florida and they travel frequently to visit us. We moved to North Carolina three years ago for ministry and to help launch a non-profit organization that helps families in need. Jayme has two siblings, a brother, and a sister, and he is the youngest. Hailey has one sister and she is the oldest. Faith is definitely at the center of our families. Almost every member serves in ministry in some way. Our families are highly supportive of our decision to adopt and we are all so excited to love our soon-to-be baby girl or boy.

CHURCH COMMUNITY & FRIENDS

We are so thankful for our church family and friends. We have been so blessed to develop deep, meaningful relationships with people that have become like family to us. Our community is so strong and we have great peace knowing that we have so many people around us, supporting us as we raise this beautiful baby.

In this family...

We believe God comes first.

We believe in valuing others as greater than ourselves.

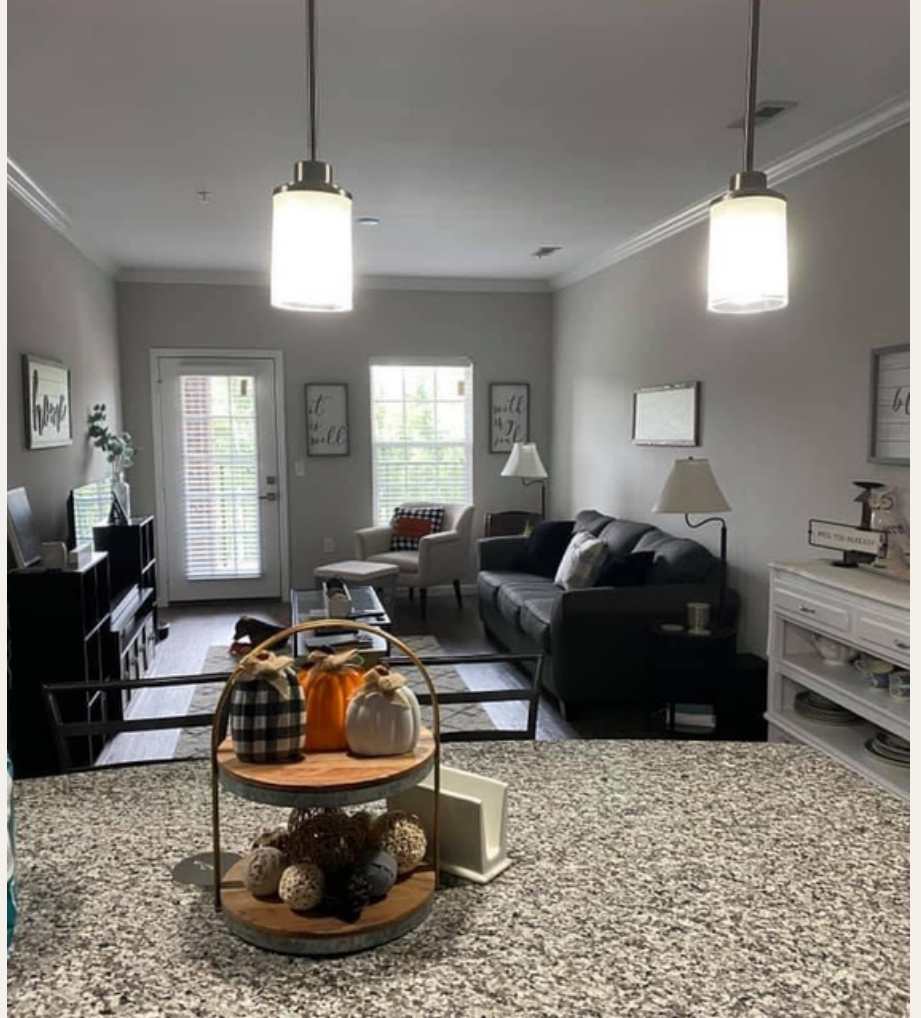

We believe in never giving up on one another.

THERE IS NO PLACE
LIKE home

We live in a safe, gated community in a luxury apartment surrounded by the North Carolina mountains. Our little home is warm with lots of love and laughter.

The Nursery

The Nursery is a very peaceful and cozy space. This room has been the prayer room since we moved in three years ago and we don't plan on changing that. This child will rest easy surrounded by the presence of the Lord.

Our sentiments

Thank you for taking the time to view our album and learn more about our family. We hope this gives you a look into our lives and a small glimpse of the bright future ahead. Great are the plans that God has in store for all of us! We pray for His peace in your life in this season and in the next.

- Jayme & Hailey

Thank you for considering

our family.
